

OTTO & COMPANY is a strategy consultancy headquartered in Munich. We advise the top management of well-known international companies on strategic issues, organizational changes and process optimization in order to implement holistic transformations together with our customers.

For our location in Munich we are looking for:

Project Manager (f/m)

You have been working in strategy consulting for several years and are looking for a new challenge? Then we look forward to your entry as a project manager.

Who we are looking for: We are looking for employees who show ambition and enthusiasm. Your excellent social and communicative skills, your solution-oriented thinking and performing, as well as your analytical and structured thinking skills have been perfected during your many years of work in strategy consulting. You have already assumed responsibility for projects and are familiar with managing employees. You speak English and ideally another foreign language fluently. Your international project experience and your own initiative complete your profile.

What we offer: At OTTO&COMPANY you have the opportunity to prove and develop your skills in national and international projects. Each individual has the opportunity to shape his or her career individually. Regardless of their position, our consultants quickly learn to take on responsibility in their job. This ensures a continuous learning process and further development.

About us: At OTTO & COMPANY, values are our top priority. Team spirit, commitment and trust are important criteria for working in small, highly motivated and creative teams in order to deliver promising results for our customers. Due to the close and collegial cooperation, humour and fun at work are not left behind, despite the results-oriented work ethic.
